

WHY MUSIC AT ALGOMA U?

Our three-year Bachelor of Arts degree provides an excellent foundation for students who wish to explore music as a career by developing the fundamentals of performance, theory, and musicianship. We offer courses in performance, audio arts, conducting, and a variety of music theory courses. We also provide an extensive variety of jazz-based courses. Performance courses are offered in the following areas: piano, organ, guitar, voice, violin, viola, cello, string bass, flute, oboe, clarinet, saxophone, bassoon, trumpet, horn, trombone, tuba, percussion, jazz piano, and jazz guitar.

Our Department of Music is made up of faculty who are experts in the field. They are active and in-demand as examiners for the Royal Conservatory of Music, and sought after for advanced master classes and clinics. Algoma Music faculty have held positions at various prestigious colleges and universities. They hold graduate and/or terminal degrees from some of the most prestigious institutions in North America and Europe. Several have won top prizes in national and international music competitions. All music faculty demonstrate profound commitment to their craft through continued national and international music competitions, active recording, teaching and research careers. Algoma music faculty go above and beyond in the classroom, while ensuring that Algoma students receive all applied lessons each term. They are committed to each student's total development, not only while in the program, but after graduation as well.

COURSE HIGHLIGHTS

Our ensembles (Algoma University Choir, Jazz Ensemble, and Music Theatre Ensemble) are very active within the local community, and provide our students with ample opportunity to perform at public venues.

We strive to create an inclusive, learningcentered experience, which involves all music students at a comfortable level. Development of reliable performance skill is nurtured through weekly performance classes, where you will discover and develop your musical voice. Students studying music at Algoma U have countless opportunities available to them. Students can take part in Department of Music Ensembles and field trips, and have access to an array of performance opportunities not readily available elsewhere in the country!

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Demonstrate the ability to hear, identify, and work conceptually with the elements of music (rhythm, melody, harmony, and structure).
- Show competencies essential to the independent and collaborative practice of music.
- Confidently participate in public performances as a means for engaging communities and creating cultural awareness.
- Perform as soloists, ensemble members and chamber musicians.
- Demonstrate teaching skills for individual, studio and group settings.
- Create, analyze, and synthesize music as a means of supporting a developing career in music teaching and/or performance.
- Use skills in preparation for a performance of musical works that exhibit effective artist expression.
- Demonstrate professional competence in performance including technical mastery, sight- reading and interpretive skills, and artistic self-expression.

WHY STUDY AT ALGOMA U IN SAULT STE. MARIE?

Algoma U is located in Sault Ste. Marie, a city of 75,000 people in Northern Ontario. "The Soo", as locals call it, has all the amenities of a big city – shopping, entertainment, sports teams, festivals, and cultural activities – but without the hassle of traffic.

We're lucky enough to live in a city surrounded by the great outdoors. With Lake Superior and the St. Mary's River literally just steps from our front door, there's always something to do. You can catch some sun at the beach or walk our beautiful boardwalk. With the highest elevation in Ontario, Searchmont Resort is a popular winter destination for our students, offering great alpine skiing and snowboarding.
