

Teaching Awards

The purpose of the Algoma University Awards for Excellence in Teaching is to acknowledge and celebrate the outstanding efforts made by Algoma University faculty in engaging, exciting, inspiring, and motivating students to learn. These awards were established in 2019 and are made annually at the June Convocation. Two recipients are honored each year, a full-time and part-time faculty member.

All full-time or part-time faculty who have taught at Algoma University on any of its campuses for at least three years are eligible for consideration for these awards.

More information related to these awards can be found here:'

Algoma University Award for Excellence in Teaching \(FT Faculty\) Algoma University Award for Excellence in Teaching \(PT Faculty\)